Parents of the bride are Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Harding, Route One, Dora, Alabama; the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Toy K. Dyess of Elba.

Nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Joy Steinhilber, organist and Mr. Harold Newberry, vocalist.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of candlelight lace and silk organza. The groom wore a tuxedo with a white waistline bodice.

The bride's bouquet was composed of white and yellow daisies, lilies, and carnations.

Attending as bridesmaids were Mrs. Sigurd Bryan, Birmingham; Mrs. Harry Monroe, Birmingham; Mrs. Kenneth Simmons, El Paso, Texas; and Miss Martha Ann Cox, Birmingham. They wore lime green full length voile gowns.

The bride's veil was a cascade of green cymbidium orchids and white anemones amid lace leaves, serving as a train for the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Glover of Dora, Alabama, the junior bridesmaid, were Karen Glover, and the flower girl was Janet Glover, nieces of the bride. They were dressed in yellow full length voile gowns.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Baptist Student Center in the Montevallo Baptist Church. The bride's traveling costume, selected for their wedding trip to Atlanta, was a mint green three-piece suit with a white collar and white accessories.

Upon their return, they will reside in Tuscaloosa for the summer and then return to Montgomery in the fall of 1971.

John Brunson returned May 29 from New York City where he visited his daughter, the former Jean Brunson. The main purpose of his trip was to see his first grandson, John Baldwin Day.

Reunion Enjoyed By Class Of '51

The 20 years ago graduates of Elba High School met Saturday evening at the Elba Country Club for their first class reunion.

The spacious dining hall was decorated with festoons of crepe paper in the 1951 Class colors, red and white. The tables were arranged to form an L and held pretty arrangements of cut flowers placed at intervals. The name cards were miniature graduation caps the girls' were white and the boys' were black, corresponding to the colors of caps and gowns worn at graduation. An attractive booklet was placed at each individual place. The booklet gave the names, addresses and other information about each member of the class, a list of the class officers, and the program for the evening.

Waylon Adkinson served as master of ceremonies. His remarks aroused some nostalgia, and his quick wit kept his audience laughing. He presented a list of names of graduates who were teachers of that class; they were Mrs. Ola B. Kendrick, Sr., sponsor;

Miss Zedie Rowe, Mrs. Ethel I. Arkins, Mrs. Bettie Head Trawick, of Panama City, and Mrs. Syble Taylor of Montgomery.

Wilson Dyess gave a prayer of thanks just before the dinner consisting of T-bone steak, baked potato, salad, dessert, coffee and tea.

After the meal, Waylon presented Mrs. Kendrick, Pietrantonio for having traveled the greatest distance to attend the reunion; Lewis Merrill Brooks for having gained the most weight;

Farrell Burke for having lost the most hair; Sara Dye Rhodes and Joy Parker Vickers who tied for having the most children; and to Sara Dye Rhodes for having retained her youth to the greatest extent.

Members of the class attending the reunion and not already named were: Douglas Green, Ruby Nell Wilkes Mickie, Syble King Stivers, Erlene Ammons Kelley, John Joseph Enzor, Walter Smith, Marie Farris McCurley, Rebecca Kelley Davis, Dora Jacobs Colquett, Winola Donaldson Jones, Roxie Ann Walker Smart, Helen Goodson Baggett, Betty Rushing Rogers, Albert Lee, Doris Carpenter Ringdorf, Ella Wilkerson Williams, Dorothy Gallimore Ennis, Betty Plant Fuller and Eugene Devane.

The committee who made plans and arrangements for the reunion was composed of: Waylon Adkinson, Betty Plant Fuller, Ruby Nell Wilkes Mickie, Roxie Ann Walker Smart, Rebecca Kelley Davis, Syble King Stivers, Eugene Devane, Farrell Burke, and Wilson Dyess.

The class plans to hold another reunion in June 1974.

Miss Marie Vaughan Weds

Mr. James R. Martin, Jr.

Miss Marie Vaughan and Mr. James R. Martin, Jr., a groom of silk organza were united in marriage June 9 at 3:30 in the Elba United Methodist Church. Reverend Edwin R. Seils performed the double ring ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Milton L. Vaughan and Mr. and Mrs. James R. Martin, all of Elba.

Nuptial music was presented by Mrs. Paul King, organist and Miss Kathy DeVaughan who sang "The Wedding Prayer."

Church decorations included a massive arrangement of yellow and white daisies, snapdragons, glads and baby's breath on the communion table with candles on each side of the choir loft and the lighted cross was in the background.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of silk organza over white peau de sole made by her Mother. The gown featured an empire waistline, stand-up collar and short sleeves. Appliqued lace medallions and lace trimmed the bodice, skirt and sleeves. Her chapel length train of illusion edged with lace was attached to a lace Camille cap. She carried a cascade bouquet of daisies and stephanotis centered with an orchid.

Mrs. Kenneth Baker, sister of the bride was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Virginia Vaughan, sister of the bride; Miss Debi Easters and Miss Terry Martin. The attendants wore gowns of yellow dotted swiss made by the bride's mother. They featured empire waistlines and short puffed sleeves accented with a daisy trim. The bridesmaids carried baskets of yellow and white daisies.

Johnny Martin, brother of the groom, was best man. Groomsmen were Sammy Edmondson, Ed Collier, cousins of the groom; and Ken Martin, brother of the groom. Ushers were Kenneth Baker, Elton Maddox, Bobby Edmondson and Tom Collier.

Following the ceremony the bride's parents entertained with a reception in the church fellowship hall. After a wedding trip the couple will reside in Auburn.

Smith's Granddaughter Schedules Month Visit

Sophia Ann Johns of Waverly, Tennessee is visiting her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry J. Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Henry N. Smith, all of Elba.

Tasty, Nutritious Raisin Cookies

Taste one, you'll keep on munching. These cookies are so full of crunchy goodness and natural energy with sweet, sun-dried California raisins, toasted wheat germ, butterscotch candy bits.

Make up several batches of these quick drop cookies in the cool of the morning (the kids can help) to serve with frothy lemonade or milk. They're perfect with fruit for an easy dessert.

RAISIN MUNCHING COOKIES

1 cup butter or shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 egg
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder

1/2 cup toasted wheat germ
1/2 cup California seedless raisins
1/2 cup butterscotch chips

Blend together butter, sugar, egg and vanilla. Add flour, sifted flour, baking powder and salt. Mix well. Stir in wheat germ, raisins and butterscotch chips. Drop by teaspoonfuls onto lightly greased baking sheets, about 2 inches apart. Bake in moderately hot oven (375° F.) 10 to 12 minutes, until browned. Let stand a minute, then remove to racks to cool. Makes about 3 1/2 dozen cookies.

Curlers and hair accessories should be washed occasionally in warm suds to remove the film formed by natural hair oils and hair dressing.

High quality beef is bright cherry red in color. It is firm and fine in texture with adequate amounts of firm, creamy white fat.

Washington Report

by GEORGE ANDREWS
Member of Congress
Third District of Ala.

Fidel Castro's rise to power in Cuba left some red faces in this country. He was not the "Robin Hood of the Caribbean," as some Americans believed.

The same mistake cannot be made where Chile is concerned. Salvador Allende, new Chilean president, is a cut-and-dried Marxist-Leninist Communist.

He heads a Popular Unity Coalition, thanks primarily to the support of the Communist Party, the third largest in the non-Communist world.

He was a member of the Socialist Party, where in Chile he developed his desire to "socialize" the country—just like Castro's "socialized" Cuba. Presumably,

With the help of striking under such a system everybody has about the same as everybody else — except the Communist Party.

Comrade Allende was elected, true enough, although by only 36.3 percent of the vote, managing a bare 1-4 percent edge over the runner-up candidate in the three-way race.

Chile's new Communist-style dictator has been busy since his inauguration with all of the little things that a new leader must do to stay on top.

First priority has been to remove "enemies of the state," and foremost of these is any medium of the press which does not espouse the Party line.

It has been reported that over 2.5 million acres have been expropriated, and this same manner as Cuba, he is export her land to Chilean Indians, under the direction of the extremist Castro-oriented Movement of Leftist Revolutionaries (MLR).

The helpless landowners get no help from the local police, who are controlled ultimately by the Allende Government.

Allende has warmly embraced the Communist nations of East Germany, Communist China, Poland, Hungary, Bulgaria and Cuba.

What has the United States done? Very little at the moment. We have given Chile $1.4 billion in foreign aid since 1946. Perhaps $50 million of giveaway money to Communist Chile is outstanding right now.

Comrade Allende has nationalized the giant copper industry in Chile, worth about $750 million. It is of little concern to him that American-owned copper firms are being grabbed.

All Communists must have a "land reform" program. That means illegally taking the land of wealthy owners and dividing it up among the peasants, and then just when the peasants think they finally have a little land of their own, they are forced into collective farms.

It must be watched and restricted in much the same manner as Cuba, because the day will surely come when she will try to export her land to Chilean Indians, under the direction of the extremist Castro-oriented Movement of Leftist Revolutionaries (MLR).

Communist labor unions, the largest publishing company in Latin America, located in Santiago, is going bankrupt and will be taken over by the Allende Government.

It is easy for Allende's Red regime to drive off-ends businesses, publishing and otherwise, into bankruptcy, because it is in the process of nationalizing Chile's banking system by buying majority stock ownership in the country's banks.

On May 1, 1921, Pearlite Play Tindol and Beresford Lowry were married in the Tabernacle Community in Coffee County. May 1, 1971, marked their 50th wedding anniversary. A reception to celebrate the occasion was held in the fellowship hall of the Zion Chapel Church on Saturday, June 19.

All of their children were present for the occasion: Ouida Hall, Brinkley, Arkansas; Charles Lowry, Pensacola, Florida; Mary Payne, Ozark, Billie Hickham, Sandersville, Georgia; Jack Lowry, Pensacola; Play Logan, Birmingham; Fran Turner, Phenix City and B. Franklin Lowry of Elba. The Lowry family also includes seventeen grandchildren, two of which are deceased, and three great-grandchildren.

"Preacher" Lowry as he is more widely known, was ordained into the Baptist ministry in 1932. Traveling by Hoover cart, Model "A", Ford and often hitchhiking, he has carried the gospel to many people in this area. He has pastored sixteen churches during his thirty-eight years in the ministry. He returned to most of them two or three times for several terms as pastor.

In Coffee County, he has served: Woodland Grove, Bethlehem, Mt. Zion, Bluff Springs, Mt. Cilead, New Haven, Ino, Taylor Hill, Gum Springs and New Lebanon. There were five churches in Pike County: St. John, Eanon, Montecello, Hales Chapel and White Rock. Joquin Baptist Church was the only church in Crenshaw County that Preacher Lowry pastored.

Many couples have been joined in marriage by Preacher Lowry. His ceremonies have ranged from the very informal service by the wood heater in the "front room," to the most formal in the largest churches.

Mrs. Lowry travels with her husband whenever it is possible for her to do so. She often plays the piano for the church service or for the preacher to sing a solo. Many times she has remained at home with the children or with invalid parents while Preacher Lowry spent weeks away from home in revivals and singing schools.

Now Preacher Lowry does not pastor a church, but does interim and supply preaching. Mrs. Lowry stays at home most of the time to take care of her mother, Mrs. L. ante Tindol. They are members of the Zion Chapel Baptist Church and live at "Lowry's Mill," Route One, Jack, where they have spent most of this half-century together.
